Burlington is home to a thriving traditional fiddling community. The folk violin is present in most cultures and is used to perform a common repertoire of traditional dance melodies which are loosely called “fiddle tunes.” These tunes are also played on other instruments and are performed at informal gatherings called “sessions.” Our commonly played local repertoire is the legacy of Vermont’s immigrant groups. It is also assembled, adapted and contributed to by local musicians.

Since we are preparing musicians to participate in their shared culture, here are some extremely common tunes of local importance which will be useful for students. To understand how and why these tunes are performed locally, students should learn under the guidance of local master musicians. As a supplement to this in-person learning process, the LE books include sheet music and backup tracks for three groups of commonly played tunes.

- LE1 “Extremely Easy” Tunes
- LE2 “Easy” Tunes
- LE3 “Moderate” Tunes

These charts are intended to give a student general familiarity with the tunes. Actual performance in groups and at dances may vary significantly from what is printed here. In addition to the fiddle books, separate books are available giving fingerings, transpositions and other technical info for mandolin, guitar and Bb Horn.

This Book

Tunes in the LE1 “Extremely Easy” Tunes book are simplistic versions for developing technique. They are great to play but you should remember that an experienced musician would play a more elaborate version of the melody.

In B \flat this tune is a disaster! This is the easiest possible tune on the fiddle but on trumpet everything is wrong! The only reason to even attempt this is that fiddle music is great and fiddlers are fun to be with. Fortunately you will soon learn the tricks and you will develop great skills. One trick is to jump back and forth between the octaves to find the easy notes. I repeat... a disaster!

Verse:
 Had a little dog, and she hadn't any sense,
 The darn little fool kept barking at the fence.

Hogs in the 'tater patch, that I know,
 Cows in the cornfield told me so.

Had an old horse, her name was Ball,
 Hitched her up but she wouldn't pull at all.

First to the white house, then to the jail,
 Tore my pants on a rusty nail.

Fire in the mountain, fun, boys, fun,
 Cat's in the cream jug, run, gals, run.

Ducks in the mill pond, geese in the clover,
 Tell them pretty gals I'm a-comin' over.

The Dance:

Jump while holding hands with your partner.

Nod.

Shake.

Tap.

Then do a two-hands circle until you sing

"Find another partner".

Drop your partner's hands and quickly find another partner and repeat the dance.

End with groups of four, then one big circle

Caveat:

This song arises from the American "minstrel" tradition. It is presented here in hopes that it has transcended its negative association with racial stereotypes.
