Here is the plan:

One of the roles of music education is to make sure everyone can play a bunch of simple, catchy tunes that everyone else knows. I teach a repertoire of traditional tunes that can be pretty challenging. They are technically difficult and are often played in difficult keys. Learning to play many keys at the same time is a bit much. To get you up to speed, here are some really common tunes presented in the one or two scales best suited for your instrument. As Vermonters, we have a common repertoire of songs. You really should know them so when your fellow musicians start jamming on "Bingo" or "Jambo Bwana" or "If You're Happy and You Know it" you can join in. Some of these songs are "Hot Cross Buns" simple and others like "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" are more complex. Even though some of these might not be your first choice on Spotify, they are great learning tunes and great party tunes because EVERYONE knows them (or should know them.)

Tin Whistle

The tin whistle plays well in D and in G. Our approach is to start off by playing all 55 tunes in those keys. Then we can move on and play the same tunes in A. This is a gentle approach to reading where you can become familiar with the intervals and fingerings of the D and G scales and their related minors. Many of these songs use the same miniscales, arpeggios and other motifs. They also use the same several chords in a formulaic way which really helps you get familiar with the physical motions and with their relationship to melody and rhythm.

please realize that D and G are just starting points and you will need to learn to play and read in other keys so that you can collaborate with other musicians. This is a good place to start though, so enjoy exploring this fun and familiar repertoire

TRANSPOSING INSTRUMENT ALERT! C on a piano, guitar, mandolin or ukulele is a D on trumpet and either D or A on sax! That is one of the reasons everyone has to learn to play in several keys.

Many whistle players own whistles in different keys which allows them to use familiar fingerings but to produce different scale tones.

THE HANDSOME CABIN BOY

This is a great, thoroughly typical mixolydian melody associated with "The Handsome Cabin Boy."
The lyrics of the song were published in the 1850s This particular melody is used by
A.L. Lloyd, Martin Carthy, Gordon Bok and others.

11/21/23

MIXOLYDIAN SCALE

There are lots of verses. Here is the last:

So each man took his drop of rum and he drunk success to trade,
And likewise to the cabin boy who was neither man nor maid.
It's hoping the wars don't rise again, us sailors to destroy,
And here's hoping for a jolly lot more like the handsome cabin boy.

Because you're mine, I walk the line.

You've got a way to keep me on your side.
You give me cause for love that I can't hide.
For you I know I'd even try to turn the tide.
Because you're mine, I walk the line.

As sure as night is dark and day is light.
I keep you on my mind both day and night.

MAKE NEW FRIENDS, BUT KEEP THE OLD

JOSEPH PARRY (1841-1903)

11/21/23

G E MIN D<sup>7</sup>

Make new friends, but keep the old._

G C D<sup>7</sup> G

One is sil - ver and the o - ther gold.

This Version Was Published by the NIH!

Make new friends, but keep the old.
One is silver and the other gold.

A circle is round, it has no end.
That's how long I will be your friend.

A fire burns bright, it warms the heart.
We've been friends from the very start.

You have one hand, I have the other.
Put them together and we have each other.

Silver is precious, Gold is too.
I am precious and so are you.

You help me and I'll help you and together we will see it through.

Across the land, across the sea,
Friends forever we will always be.

Joseph Parry (1841-1903) verses:

Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.
New-made friendships, like new wine,
Age will mellow and refine.

Friendships that have stood the test—
Time and change— are surely best;
Brow may wrinkle, hair grow gray,
Friendship never knows decay.

For 'mid old friends, tried and true,
Once more we our youth renew.
But old friends, alas! may die,
New friends must their place supply.

Cherish friendship in your breast—
New is good, but old is best;
Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.

MEIN HUT DER HAT DREI ECKEN

First recorded in the Saarland, in south-western Germany, in 1886.
 The tune is that of a Neapolitan canzonetta called "O cara mamma mia" that's at least 70 years older.

11/21/23

Mein Hut der hat drei Ecken, Drei
 Ecken hat mein Hut. Und hätt' er nicht drei Ecken dann
 wär' es nicht mein Hut.

My hat, it has three corners,
 Three corners has my hat.
 And had it not three corners
 It would not be my hat.

sneezed

On top of spaghetti
All covered with cheese
I lost my poor meatball
When somebody sneezed

It rolled off the table,
And onto the floor
And then my poor meatball
Rolled out of the door

It rolled in the garden
And under a bush
And then my poor meatball
Was nothing but mush.

The mush was as tasty
As tasty could be,
And early next summer
It grew to a tree.

The tree was all covered
With beautiful moss
It grew great big meatballs
And tomato sauce.

So if you eat spaghetti
All covered with cheese,
Hold on to your meatball
And don't ever sneeze.

o - ther day, I met a bear, out

A7 D

in the woods, Oh, way

I looked at her.
She looked at me.
I smiled at her.
She growled at me.

And so I ran,
Away from there,
But right behind,
Me was that bear.

And so I jumped,
Into the sky,
But I missed that branch,
I flew right by!

She said to me,
Why don't you run.
I see that you,
Don't have a gun.

And then I see,
Ahead of me,
A great big tree,
Oh, glory be!

Now don't you fret,
Now don't you frown,
'Cause I caught that branch,
On the way back down!

I said to her,
"That's a good idea.
So come on feet,
Let's get out of here!"

The lowest branch,
Was ten feet up.
I'd have to jump,
And trust my luck!

Now that's the end,
There ain't no more,
Unless I meet,
That bear once more.

From Derry quay we sailed away on the twenty-third of May
We were taken on board by a pleasant crew, bound for Amerikay
Fresh water then we did take on, five thousand gallons or more
In case we'd run short going to New York far away from the shamrock shore.

So fare thee well, sweet Liza dear and likewise unto Derry town
And twice farewell to my comrade all that dwell on that sainted ground
If fortune or fame shall favor me, and I too have money in store
I'll go back and I'll wed the wee lassie I left on Paddy's green shamrock shore.

We sailed three weeks, we were all seasick, not a man on board was free
We were all confined unto our bunks and no-one to pity poor me.
No father kind nor mother dear to lift up my head, which was sore
Which made me think more on the lassie I left on Paddy's green shamrock shore.

We safely reached the other side after fifteen and twenty days,
We were taken as passengers by a man and led round in six different ways,
Then each of us drank a parting glass, in case we'd meet no more
And we drank a health to old Ireland and Paddy's green shamrock shore.

Say little darlin', won't you marry me. Live in a holler 'neath the old oak tree.

Livin' in a holler 'neath the old oak tree. Children bouncing on daddy's knee.

Hush little baby don't say a word. Poppa's gonna buy you a mocking bird.

Mocking bird, if it don't sing, Poppa's gonna buy you a diamond ring.

And if that diamond ring is brass, Poppa's gonna buy you a looking glass.

Looking glass, if it gets broke, Poppa's gonna buy you a billy-goat.

Billy-goat, if it don't pull, Poppa's gonna buy you a cart and bull.

And if that cart and bull falls down, you're still the sweetest baby in town.

Say little darlin', won't you marry me. Live in a holler 'neath the old oak tree.

In the old oak tree we'll make our home, never more this world to roam.

Stoneman's lyrics

1. Oh, little darling, if you was mine, you wouldn't do nothing but starch and iron, Say, darling, say.
2. Starch and iron'd be your trade, an' I'd get drunk and lay in the shade, Say, darling, say.

(then the usual "hush little darlin'" words etc)

The wa-ter is wide, I can-not cross o'er Neith-er have I ___ wings to fly Give me a boat that can car - ry two And both shall row, my love and I

A ship there is and she sails the sea
She's loaded deep as deep can be
But not so deep as the love I'm in
I know not if I sink or swim

I leaned my back against an oak
Thinking it was a trusty tree
But first it bent and then it broke
So did my love prove false to me

I reached my hand into some bush
Thinking the fairest flower to find
I pricked my finger to the bone
And left the fairest flower behind

Oh love be handsome and love be kind
Gay as a jewel when first it is new
But love grows old and waxes cold
And fades away like the morning dew

Must I go bound while you go free
Must I love a man who won't love me
Must I be born with so little art
As to love a man who'll break my heart

When cockle shells turn silver bells
Then will my love come back to me
When roses bloom in winter's gloom
Then will my love return to me

 How my heart is now wondering no misery can tell
 He's left me no warning, no words of farewell

I will dance, I will sing, and my loft shall be gay
 I will charm every heart, in his crown I will sway
 When I woke from my dreaming my idol was clay
 All portion of love had all flown away

Oh, he taught me to love him and called me his flower
 That was blooming to cheer him through life's dreary hour
 Oh, I long to see him and regret the dark hour
